

IMI employs CAD/CAM on all design work, enabled to cope with customers' needs for wide variety of products with short delivery time.

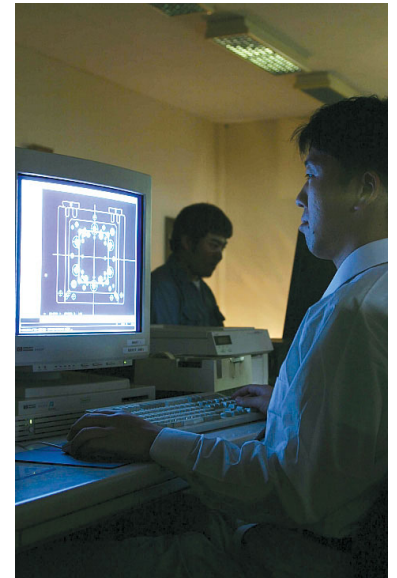

IMI Corporation, a manufacturer providing an in-depth response to the needs of customers in high-precision press processing on an integrated basis from the tooling production, responds to the innovations in the production processes and consistently tries introducing advanced technologies ahead of time to meet the needs of customers who demand more and more precision. Design and development section has introduced CAD/CAM technologies to enable the integrated solution, from design, development and to the manufacturing, including the processing of the required tooling. Our highly qualified and dedicated staff, well versed with the whole process of press processing, will assist customers and solve customer's problems one hundred percent.

Manufacturing capabilities Tooling design

Clever minds specialized in the press processing Intelligent Creation

Tooling

Designing of tooling employing CAD/CAM

The slogan, one company one technology, in a few words stands for the excellence of the technology and the dedication of the company that Gunma Prefecture considers extraordinary. The Company is proud of, employs, improves and refines the technology, and the Prefecture appreciates that without it the Prefecture could not prosper in the manufacturing industry.

Wire cut EDM

NC EDM

Machining workstation